LENINE IN DANGER FROM REVOLUTION, IS BALTIC OPINION

Some Think He May Pull Through, but Ablest Observers Fear Chaos.

ZINOVIEFF ARRESTED

Others Report Him Safe and Deny Capture of Krasnoyarsk.

By CAPT. FRANCIS McCULLAGH.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1921, by THE NEW YORK HERALD. Riga, March 7.—While Baltic statesmen, owing to their fear for their own future, say there is a possibility that Nikolai Lenin, head of the Bolshevik Government, may weather the storm, the ablest observers here say that Lenin's fall would result in chaos.

The New York Herald correspondent here heard yesterday that revolutionary forces from Kronstadt had captured Krasnoyarsk, near Petrograd, and had arrested G. S. Zinovieff, Soviet Governor of that city, and Kalinin, a Soviet Commissioner.

Wireless negotiations between Kronstadt and Petrograd now going on were begun by Zinovieff, who warned the Kronstadt "Whites" to take advantage of the respite accorded them and asking them to send nonpartisan delegates to Petrograd. The Kronstadt forces at first replied defiantly, but finally agreed to send delegates to Petrograd provided they were guaranteed freedom of movement.

Zinovieff asserts that Petrograd is safe and that Krasnoyarsk is being held by faithful Reds. He attributes the Kronstadt revolt to a ship's clerk named Petrichenko, a sailor named Turnin, Capt. Vladimir Bursteff and officers of the Krasnoyarsk fleet who are outlaws. The German, Hungarian and international regiments have been ordered to Moscow from the south. Their speedy arrival in Moscow is impossible, however, owing to the stoppage of the railroad trains.

Maxim Litvinoff, chief of the Soviet Ambassadors abroad, furiously contradicts reports of disorders in Russia. He is constantly in telegraphic touch with Tchitcherine, Bolshevik Foreign Minister in Moscow, but Litvinoff's action leads to the conclusion that he is really sending pessimistic news to Tchitcherine, as for the last few days he has been tearing around Reval, his headquarters, like a caged rat trying to escape. He is alleged to have had some Soviet commissioners arrested for fleeing from Russia into Estonia without passports.

Reports from Pskov say that city is without train service.

The Bolshevik army is excited and the telegraph lines to Petrograd have been cut. There are no newspapers being published, and everybody is quoting the prophecy of Father John regarding Kronstadt, to the effect that Russia, having been enslaved by anti-Christians, a rebellion will start at Kronstadt and Russia will be free by Easter, 1921.

Unemployed Disapprove Brand of Work Offered

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 7.

—Unless conditions in connection with emergency relief for the unemployed are altered a strike will be called to-morrow, municipal authorities were notified by a committee to-day.

The men protested against being compelled to crush rock for highway work, contending it was work which should be done by machinery, members of the committee said. The men also demanded higher pay.

PEASANT REVOLT SPREADS IN RUSSIA

Gen. Savinoff Seizes Tambour Railway Junction.

LONDON, March 7.—A despatch to the London Times from Warsaw says a peasant revolt of unusual proportions is spreading in the Governments of Tambour, Voronezh and Kursk, under the leadership of the Red army, according to Gen. Boris Savinoff, head of the former Russian political committee here and political adviser to Gen. Bulak-Balakovich, the Finnish leader.

Gen. Savinoff's forces have seized an important railway junction in Tambour, cooperating with Gen. Makino, the Ukrainian anti-Bolshevik leader.

SOVIET AND ITS FOES BOMBARD EACH OTHER

By the Associated Press.

HELSINKI, Finland, March 7.—The revolutionaries are bombarding Petrograd, and Soviet batteries at Sytarloik, Revonnena and Tarvokka are bombarding Kronstadt, says a despatch from Vilborg received here.

The fortress at Krasnoyarsk, the despatch adds, is participating in the fight, but, owing to the fog, it is not known on which side.

It is stated that Gen. Kozlovsky, the rebel leader, sent an ultimatum Friday ordering all Communists to leave Petrograd within three days, failing which the city would be bombarded.

One report says that 37,000 men from Kronstadt are marching to Petrograd. The Soviet officials have sent Chinese and other troops with artillery to meet them. The Soviet troops tried to get in contact with the rebels across the ice near the suburb of Waschostrof, but the cruiser Petropavlovsk shelled and routed them.

All classes of citizens of Kronstadt have united in the uprising against the Soviet Government, says a despatch to the Russian Union Agency here. The Provisional Government has published a programme, the agency announces, the essence of which is a demand for immediate convention of a constituent assembly and the restoration of freedom of trade between individuals.

JAPAN STIPULATES FOR EQUAL RIGHTS IN SOUTH PACIFIC

Accepts Yap Mandate With Reservations Against Discrimination.

TEXT IS MADE PUBLIC

Demands Full Rights in Territory Mandated to Australia.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Japan accepted the mandate for former German possessions in the Pacific north of the equator, including the island of Yap, with the reservation that Japanese citizens should not be subjected "to a discriminatory and disadvantageous treatment" in other mandated territories.

That was disclosed in the complete text of the mandate granted to Japan by the League of Nations, which was obtained to-day at the State Department. The reservation stipulated by Japan was similar to one advanced by the American Government in reference to Mesopotamia in its recent note to the League of Nations, in which exception also was taken to the declaration in the preamble of the mandate that it was conferred in accordance with an agreement between "the principal allies and associated Powers."

The United States has maintained that it was never a party to the agreement by which Yap was conferred upon Japan, and it has also insisted upon equal commercial opportunities for all nationals in the mandated territories. Japan's contention for equal opportunities is understood to apply particularly to the mandated territories south of the equator in the Pacific awarded to Australia.

The text of the mandate is of particular interest to the United States in that it specifically provides that the consent of the council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of its terms.

The council of the league in its recent reply to the American note concerning the award of Yap to Japan stated that this was a question which would have to be settled between the principal allied and associated Powers, as the function of the league was only an administrative one.

Text of the Mandate.

Following the preamble and the definition of the boundaries of the mandate, the text says in part: "The mandatory shall have full power of administration over the territory subject to the present mandate as an integral portion of the Empire of Japan and may apply the laws of the Empire of Japan to the territory, subject to such local modification as circumstances may require. The military training of the natives, otherwise than for purposes of internal police and the local defence of the territory, shall be prohibited. Furthermore, no military or naval bases shall be established or fortifications erected in the territory."

"The consent of the council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of the terms of the present mandate. The mandatory agrees that if any dispute whatever should arise between the mandatory and another member of the League of Nations relating to the interpretation of the application of the provisions of the mandate, such dispute, if it cannot be settled by negotiation, shall be submitted to the permanent Court of International Justice provided for by Article 14 of the Covenant of the League of Nations."

The appended declaration by the Japanese Government says in part: "That decision, however, should not be considered as an acquiescence on the part of his Imperial Majesty's Government in the submission of Japanese subjects to a discriminatory and disadvantageous treatment in the mandated territories, nor have they thereby discarded their claim that the rights and interests enjoyed by Japanese subjects in these territories in the past should be fully respected."

4 KILLED, 12 HURT IN COMMUNIST FIGHT

200 Persons Arrested After Clash With Fascists.

ROME, March 7.—Four persons were killed, a dozen wounded and 200 arrested as the result of a clash between Communists and Fascists, or Extreme Nationalists, in Casale Monferrato, says the Tempo to-day.

The Fascists, who were holding a patriotic demonstration, were fired at from a labor office and returned the fire, forcing the Communists to surrender.

BELGIUM IN MOVIE BUSINESS.

BRUSSELS, March 7.—The Government proposes to create a national moving picture film organization to buy direct from the producers and lease films to moving picture theatres. The decision is the result of the hostility of film censors to the law subjecting films to censorship and a tax of one sou a meter.
